

You can be a part of the

UNION PARISH PUBLIC ART PROJECT

Union Museum of History and Art will install a permanent public art sculpture on the southside grounds of Union Parish Courthouse in the fall of 2018. The sculpture, designed by local artist Jamie Anderson, will be a seven-foot tall concrete structure encased with a mural of glass mosaic pieces, yielding a stunning statement about the beauty of our waters and the creatures that inhabit them.

You are invited to be part of the public art project by purchasing a commemorative brick that will be installed on the base of the sculpture. Your brick can be inscribed in honor or memory of a loved one or as a dedication from you or your business. (See form on back)
